Human Resource Information Network (HRIN)

- Presented by,
- Ashutosh Kalyankar
- Kalp Desai
- Saayad Adnan

Problem Statement

TIME-CONSUMING
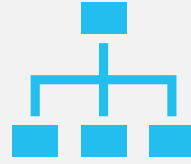

LACK OF VISIBILITY INTO HR DATA

INEFFICIENT RECRUITMENT PROCESSES

LIMITED EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT

Proposed System

This application helps organizations manage and optimize their human resources.

This application provides a comprehensive set of tools and features that automate HR processes, including recruitment, employee onboarding, payroll management, performance management, and employee development.

HRIN is typically can be used by HR departments in organizations of all sizes, from small startups to large enterprises.

Key Features

recruitment management

employee data management

benefits administration

employee development

Job Posting

Resume Screening

Interview Scheduling

Analytics and Reporting

Recruitment Management

Employee Data Management

Centralized Data Of Employees

Employee Self-Service

Performance Management

Easy to manage personal information

Advantages

Improves data accuracy

Enhances the employee experience

Any level businesses can prefer this application

Provides reporting functionality

Conclusion

- Human Resource Information Network (HRIN) streamline recruitment processes, manage employee data and benefits, automate administrative tasks, improve the employee experience, ensure compliance with labor laws and regulations, and provide real-time analytics and reporting.

Thank You